Art and reintegration from the perspective of young talents from the Dubasari district

Today, a group of twenty children from the Art School in the village Cosnita, Dubasari district had the opportunity to visit the Government of the Republic of Moldova and the National History Museum of Moldova. This special experience gave them the opportunity to exhibit their artistic works and to better understand our people's national heritage and historical past.

During their visit to the Government of the Republic of Moldova, the children organized an exhibition of their artistic works. The paintings presented demonstrated the talent and creativity of our children. The Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration, Oleg Serebrian, had the pleasure of meeting these young artists and congratulating them on their outstanding work.
