

Prime Minister meets new EU Ambassador to Moldova

Prime Minister Dorin Recean has met new European Union Ambassador to Moldova Iwona Piórko. The officials discussed projects carried out the country with EU support, which have contributed to development of the infrastructure, strengthening energy security and improving citizens' quality of life.

The Prime Minister highlighted that the Moldovan government would continue to prioritize the necessary actions, in order to speed up the process of accession to the European Union, emphasizing the constant support and openness of European states towards Moldova.

Common priorities include advancing essential reforms, strengthening democratic institutions and the agenda for peace, stability and the European future of Moldova.
