

U.S. to continue to support Moldova in efforts for reform, modernization, strengthening national security

Prime Minister Alexandru Munteanu met today with Nick Pietrowicz, Chargé d'Affaires of the United States of America. The discussions focused on strengthening the Moldova-U.S. partnership and continuing joint projects in the energy, security, rule of law and economic development.

The official welcomed the support provided by the U.S. to strengthen the resilience of the Republic of Moldova and support democratic processes, including for projects like Strășeni-Gutinaș overhead power line, funded with 130 million dollars.

Nick Pietrowicz reaffirmed the U.S. government's commitment to continue supporting the Republic of Moldova in its efforts for reform, modernization, and strengthening national security. Additionally, he reiterated the United States' firm support for our country's European path.

