

Moldovan PM has talks with Ambassador of Kazakhstan

The capitalizing on the potential for economic and trade cooperation, attracting investments and developing new joint projects have been the main topics discussed by Prime Minister Vasile Tofan with Ambassador of Kazakhstan to Moldova Almat Aidarbekov.

The discussions focused on more areas with cooperation potential, including energy security, transport, infrastructure rehabilitation and the medical equipment sector. The interlocutors also highlighted the importance of protecting mutual investments and creating the necessary conditions to encourage and expand them.

In the context, Prime Minister Vasile Tofan referred to the investment opportunities offered by Moldova and the advantages for companies that choose to develop businesses in the country, including the facilities provided by free economic zones and access to foreign markets.

