

Over 50 million lei from the national social insurance budget were allocated to beneficiaries from the Transnistrian region in the first half of 2024

Over 50 million lei were paid as social benefits (pensions, allowances, payments) in the first semester of 2024 for residents of the eastern districts of the country and mun. Bender from budgetary resources.

Thus, 2 457 persons residing in the Transnistrian region benefited from such categories of payments, including 715 beneficiaries of monthly allowances for raising children, 658 beneficiaries of old-age pensions, 488 beneficiaries of temporary incapacity allowances, 231 beneficiaries of monthly state allowances, 118 beneficiaries of single childbirth allowances, etc.

Information on the number of beneficiaries and the amounts paid in 2023 for social security for residents of the Transnistrian region can be found at the following link: <https://gov.md/en/content/over-182-million-lei-national-healthcare-and-social-insurance-budgets-were-allocated>.

