

Comment of the Bureau for reintegration policies

Regarding the incident that occurred today, in Râbnița, we note that the competent public authorities are analyzing all the images and information that appeared, and we communicate the following.

As previously noted, the series of provocations in the region designed to sow panic and tension continues, one of its goals being to draw attention to the region.

The elucidation of the circumstances and qualified investigations can only be carried out by the public authorities authorized by law, which, however, do not have access to the targeted area.

