

Oleg Serebrian marked the Memory and Gratitude Day at the State University of Moldova

Today, on the occasion of Memory and Gratitude Day, Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian opened a student conference on the settlement of the Transnistrian conflict, held at the Faculty of International Relations, Political and Administrative Sciences of the Moldovan State University. The event was moderated by the Dean of the Faculty, Professor, Doctor of Sciences Alexandru Solcan.

