

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian in dialogue with experts from Berlin Economics

On 7 February, 2024, Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian had a meeting with representatives of Berlin Economics, currently undergoing a documentary visit to the Republic of Moldova.

The discussions focused on the current state of Transnistrian settlement and reintegration of the country, including the subject of technical assistance and know-how that development partners can offer to our country.

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian positively appreciated the fruitful collaboration established between Berlin Economics and the authorities of Chişinău, stressing that the efforts to strengthen contacts and cooperation between Moldovan officials and representatives of European and international organisations are important on the path of our country's accession to the European Union.
