

Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration with the Ambassador of Bulgaria to the Republic of Moldova

On February 2, 2024, Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian met with the Bulgarian Ambassador to the Republic of Moldova, Maya Dobрева. During the meeting, the current dynamics of the negotiation process on the Transnistrian settlement, the socio-economic situation in the territory controlled by the unconstitutional authorities were discussed.

Ambassador Maya Dobрева confirmed the support of the Bulgarian Government in achieving the goal of the reintegration of our country. At the same time, information was provided about both the ongoing projects and those to be launched in the Parcani commune on the left bank of the Nistru River. Parcani is the largest Bulgarian-populated locality in the Republic of Moldova.
