

Prime Minister hosted farewell meeting with Chinese Ambassador

Prime Minister Dorin Recean had a meeting with Ambassador of the People's Republic of China to the Republic of Moldova Yan Wenbin, who is concluding his diplomatic mission to our country. He thanked for the constant support given to the Republic of Moldova, emphasizing the importance of bilateral relations and development prospects.

"In recent years, the collaboration between the Republic of Moldova and China has developed, creating opportunities in fields such as renewable energy, agriculture and industrial equipment production. We are confident that this cooperation will continue to develop for the benefit of both countries," said Recean.

Additionally, the intensified economic cooperation and the support provided by China for development projects were highlighted. Ambassador Yan Wenbin began his mandate in the Republic of Moldova in December 2021.
