

Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian with the Ambassador of Japan in the Republic of Moldova

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian has met with the Ambassador of Japan in the Republic of Moldova, Yoshihiro Katayama.

During the meeting, the officials highly appreciated the cooperation between the authorities from Chisinau and Tokyo in the recent years, expressing hope that the bilateral relation will experience a rising evolution and a consolidation of the partnership between the two countries.

Deputy Prime Minister provided information about recent evolutions in the Transnistrian settlement, the dynamic of the dialogue between Chisinau and Tiraspol, the efforts undertaken by the authorities of the Republic of Moldova in order to solve the current problems on both banks of the Nistru River, as well as about the support measures provided to the refugees from Ukraine temporarily accommodated on the territory of our country.

Gratitude was expressed for the multidimensional assistance offered to the Republic of Moldova by the Japanese authorities and willingness was evoked to devise new mutually interesting development projects.

