

Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration with the delegation of the Sejm of the Republic of Poland

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian had a meeting today with the delegation of the Sejm of the Republic of Poland.

During the discussions, the officials addressed topics related to the regional situation, developments recorded in the Transnistrian settlement process, the energy crisis and other topics of interest.

Oleg Serebrian highlighted the problems faced by the population on both banks of the Nistru river, especially concerning respect for fundamental human rights, the energy problem, the refugee crisis, the complex situation generated by the war in Ukraine and its devastating consequences.

The representatives of the Seimas emphasized that both the Republic of Poland and the other member states of the European Union will continue to support the Republic of Moldova in the course of European integration and the restoration of common national spaces, noting the firm support for the territorial integrity and sovereignty of the country within its internationally recognized borders.

Using the opportunity, the Deputy Prime Minister expressed gratitude to guests for their involvement and the support offered, highlighting the fact that the European Union must continue to play an important role in achieving the desired reintegration of the country, a process which, according to the official from Chisinau, must be harmonized with the integration of the Republic of Moldova into the European Union.
