

Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian with the Ambassador of the United States of America in the Republic of Moldova

Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration Oleg Serebrian had a meeting with the Ambassador of the United States of America in Chisinau, Kent D. Logsdon.

The officials addressed the regional situation in the context of the current security architecture. Particular attention was paid to the current dynamics of the interaction between Chisinau and Tiraspol, the positive measures taken by the constitutional authorities in relation to the inhabitants of both banks of the Nistru River.

The Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration emphasized that country reintegration policies and mechanisms agreed in the negotiations must lead to the peaceful and definitive settlement of the Transnistrian conflict, with the parallel demilitarization of the region, the restoration of control by the constitutional authorities and the completion of structural reforms throughout the entire territory of the country.

Regarding the recently made amendments on the criminalization of separatism in the legislation of the Republic of Moldova, it was emphasized that they will not affect the negotiation process and persons of good faith, but are intended to prevent and combat threats to the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the country.
