

Meeting between Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian and Chris Allan, director of the Department for Eastern Europe and Central Asia at the UK Foreign Office

On Thursday, September 21, 2023, a working meeting took place between Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian and Chris Allan, Director of the Department for Eastern Europe and Central Asia at the UK Foreign Office, accompanied by Steven Fisher, the Ambassador of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the Republic of Moldova.

The key topics of discussion revolved around the transnistrian dossier and regional security, especially in the context of the Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine. Additionally, the current status of the transnistrian settlement process and the progress made in the Republic of Moldova's path towards European Union accession were in focus.

Oleg Serebrian emphasized the importance of the support provided by the United Kingdom in achieving the goals of the Moldovan government, including strengthening national security and restoring territorial integrity.
