

Prime Minister held meeting in Dubrovnik with U.S. Ambassador to Croatia

In the context of participation in the Three Seas Initiative Summit in Dubrovnik, Prime Minister Alexandru Munteanu held a meeting with Nicole McGraw, Ambassador of the United States of America to Croatia, during which the priorities of cooperation between the Republic of Moldova and the United States were discussed.

The discussions focused on key areas for the development and resilience of the Republic of Moldova, including energy security, digital connectivity, and implementation of concrete projects with a direct impact on citizens.

The importance of strengthening the strategic partnership with the United States of America was underlined, especially in a regional context marked by complex challenges. "Close cooperation with external partners remains essential for advancing reforms, increasing security, and implementing projects that deliver concrete results for citizens," Munteanu said.

Munteanu expressed his appreciation for the consistent support provided by the United States, with both sides reaffirming their commitment to develop new joint initiatives with an impact on citizens.

