

Moldovan PM has discussions with residents from central Moldova district

Orhei, 7 November - A European, strong and developed Moldova, where each citizen is respected and the law is the most important thing is the strategic goal of the government. Prime Minister Dorin Recean has conveyed a message to this effect at a discussion with more residents of the central Orhei district.

The PM talked with the citizens about the problems they faced, their expectations from the governance and the country's European agenda.

For his part, Prime Minister Dorin Recean stressed the need to consolidate the society in the European integration process. "We modernize the infrastructure, increase the investments in education and health and build European roads. We know that more effort is necessary. Now time is ripe for us to be united – only together, we can edify a European, strong and developed Moldova, where each citizen should feel the change," the prime minister said.

At the same time, the PM discussed with the mayor of the Peresecina village, Valentina Buzu, the work of the local public administration, residents' involvement in development projects, as well as the problems which need to be solved, such as the supply with water and sewerage.

„Through joint efforts locally and centrally, we will manage to edify a better future for our communities and develop the country,” Prime Minister Dorin Recean emphasized.
