Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian had a meeting with representatives of the Konrad Adenauer Foundation

Today, Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian met with a delegation of the German Konrad Adenauer Foundation (KAS), led by Mrs. Christina Krause, Head of the Security and International Relations Department.

During the meeting, an exchange of views on the main developments in the field of Transnistrian settlement has been made, including from the perspective of the constantly changing regional situation and the multiple challenges to stability in the Black Sea area.

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian expressed his satisfaction with the fruitful collaboration that the Konrad Adenauer Foundation has had for several years with civil society and public institutions in our country, expressing his hope that the projects with major impact for the development of the Republic of Moldova supported and implemented by KAS will progress even further in the future. The official also provided answers to the questions of German researchers who showed a vivid interest in the subject of the reintegration of our country.
